Altimetric profile

Min elevation 1528 m Max elevation 1746 m

From Place Frutaz, continue along the road in a westerly direction. Reach the end of the road, near the tennis courts. From here, take an obvious path that crosses the Champ de la Cure meadows and soon reaches the hamlet of Septumian. Go to the upper part of the hamlet and take a track that runs alongside the ski slopes. Climb up until reaching the large car park at Plan Porion. Retrace your steps back to Septumian. Descend a little to the left and immediately after the hamlet, you will find a path descending towards Chatrian. Once in Chatrian, cross this beautiful hamlet on the cobbled road and continue until you meet the regional road leading to the Frutaz square.

Chatrian (B)

The hamlet of Chatrian is criss-crossed by a cobblestone road and overlooked by a small church founded in 1773 following a testamentary donation by Marie Anne Chept. It is dedicated to Our Lady of Carmel.
